CORAM : R.M. LODHA &
SMT.NISHITA MHATRE , JJ.

DATED : 11TH JANUARY, 2007

P.C.

We heard the counsel for the petitioner and the counsel for the respondent No.1- Bombay Port Trust.

2. The petitioner in the writ petition challenges the action of the goods imported by the petitioner worth about Rs.1,95,00,000/-. Prima facie, the said sale was found by this court fraudulent and, accordingly, the goods sold by public auction were ordered to be handed over to the petitioner. We are informed that the petitioner as per the interim orders of this court is in possession of the goods. In our considered view, the controversy raised in the writ petition stands worked out by the various interim orders passed from time to time and, in view thereof, the writ petition does not require decision on merits. It is disposed of accordingly. The petitioner shall be free to deal with the goods imported by them in the manner they like. Rule is disposed of. No costs.
